

"Poetry International is simply beautiful. It's truly inclusive, with an impressive span and quality. Bravo!" -Robin Morgan

"You're developing a very fine magazine. The selection of poems is lively and various; the translation section has a lot of substance and range." -Robert Bly

In each issue you will find:

New poems and translations from emerging and well-established poets including Edward Hirsch, Derek Walcott, Billy Collins, Seamus Heaney, Yusef Komunyakaa, Susan Rich, and Barbara Crooker, and translators including the late John Frederick Nims, W.S. Merwin, Lisa Katz, Mark Weiss and Martha Collins.

Feature sections focusing on poetry-rich nations such as Russia, Israel, Vietnam, Iran, and Cuba and important voices such as William Matthews and Li Young Lee.

Book reviews offering extensive insight and commentary on the best work published throughout the international community.

Art by cutting-edge artists from around the world.

Our newest issue, Poetry International 13/14, features new work from Peter Champion, Anne Waldman, and Jericho Brown alongside a feature section on contemporary Chilean poetry and a chapbook by Daniel Simko.

-----Detach Here-----

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---|-------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | One year (single issue) of current Poetry International | $15- |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Two years PLUS FREE Inaugural issue of Poetry International | $30- |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Three years PLUS FREE Inaugural issue of Poetry International | $45- |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Poetry International TOTE BAG | $8- |

Name: _____

Total Amount Enclosed: _____

Address: _____

Please send check or money order to:

Poetry International

Dept. of English and Comparative Literature

San Diego State University

Email Address: _____

5500 Campanile Drive

San Diego, CA 92182-6020

<http://poetryinternational.sdsu.edu/>
poetry.international@yahoo.com